

The Bally Arcade will ask you to "ENTER RACE TIME".

(see 280 Zzzap)

The following picture should appear on your television screen:

- | | |
|----------------|-------------|
| 1. Race time | 3. Mileage |
| 2. Speedometer | 4. Your car |

The object of DODGEM (like 280 Zzzap) is to obtain as much mileage as you can, but you have an additional hazard of crashing into the other cars in the race.

HANDLE FUNCTIONS

Joy Stick no function
Knob steers your car
Trigger controls speed

Manufactured By
Bally Consumer Products Division
10750 W. Grand Ave., Franklin Park, Illinois 60131
(312) 451-1360
Cable Address: MIDCO / Telex No. 72-1596

Bally[®] PROFESSIONAL VIDEOCADE 2001

280 ZZZAP

DODGEM

VIDEOCADE 2001

280 Zzzap/DODGEM

OPERATING INSTRUCTIONS

280 Zzzap (one player)

Do you have a steady hand behind the wheel? Well, you'll get your chance to find out when you play 280 Zzzap.

Insert your 280 Zzzap/DODGEM cassette into your Bally Arcade. Press the Reset button, and the menu will appear. Press [1] on your keypad to get 280 Zzzap on your television screen.

This is only a one-player game, so you will be using hand control number one.

The Bally Arcade will ask you to "ENTER RACE TIME".

Keypad Entry	Race Time
Enter: [9] [9] [=]	99 seconds
Enter: [1] [9] [9]	1 minute 99 seconds

The following picture should appear on your television screen:

1. Speedometer
2. Mileage
3. Race time

The object of this game is to accumulate as much mileage as possible by traveling as fast as you can without crashing into the white road pegs. Every time you crash, you lose valuable time.

HANDLE FUNCTIONS

Joy stick no function
Knob steers your car
Trigger controls speed

DODGEM (one player)

Do you think your driving ability is Grand Prix caliber? Play DODGEM and you will get your answer.

With the 280 Zzzap/DODGEM cassette in position, press [2] on your keypad to get DODGEM on your television screen.